We are adding a special classic to the end of the Pre-Child/Adult, Modified, Children's, Adults, Junior/Amateur, Short stirrup, Long Stirrup, Children's Pony, and Pony Hunter. If you enter the class you will get a score for your second hunter round and then you will do a classic trip. Total of scores for both classes determines the winner. There will be a prize and ribbons for EACH division winner. ALL proceeds of this class will go directly to the ALSPCA. We will also offer a $250 jumper classic. Five must enter to pay money out. If less than 5 enter class, a prize and ribbons will be awarded. Class fee is $45.00 ... goes to a great cause!!

The Alabama Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (Alabama SPCA) is an Animal Welfare Organization based in Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The ALSPCA operates in all of Alabama. The Alabama SPCA is a statewide 501(c)3 non-profit animal welfare organization

Goals and Objectives of the Alabama SPCA

1. Establishing relationships with local Agencies in an effort to save abandoned, abused or injured pets from suffering by establishing and maintaining a network of individuals willing to provide temporary foster care for abandoned companion animals until such time as a permanent home for them would be found.
2. To help educate and inform the public through events, educational sessions/trainings, educational materials and by maintaining a website and/or other on-line services, resources, forums, or operations to enable and enhance the learning and conduct of all aspects of health, care and welfare of dogs, cats and/or other animals.
3. To advocate for the needless euthanizing of abandoned pets by promoting spay and neuter, to increase public awareness with respect to the plight of homeless pets, and to foster a culture of kindness to animals.
